The Axe

By Frances Randolph

OUR first experience with the classic Greek comedy was achieved when the Dionysians gave "The Frogs" last Thursday night. We trust it will not be our last. The scenery was an object lesson of what can be done with few facilities and a lot of ingenuity. The blue background and bright colored robes made every scene look like a Maxfield Parrish picture. The stage in the gym has never before been so impressive or so beautiful, the costuming was appropriate, and most of the acting very good. Occasionally that typically amateur fault was present of shouting for emphasis.

WE must admit that our sympathies were caught and held by the gorgeous purple—uh, whatever they wore of Euripides. It seems a shame that the royal purple could not have been brought back to earth instead of the quite ordinary color scheme worn by Aeschylus.

KERMIT GIRDNER shocked the audience and horrified the estimable Miss Brown, who directed the production, by inserting certain lines, considered too risqué for dainty college ears, which had been cut out of the production at the first rehearsal. The dear boy does love to do the unexpected.

PI PHI has been renting out its one copy of the suppressed edition of The American Mercury at twenty-five cents a peep, so that its goats may complete their education by reading "Hatrack." So far, only disappointment has been registered. Everyone expected something at least as bad as the usual accepted novel of today.

AND on the same subject, we hear that the "Watch and Ward" society, self-appointed guardians of the public morals, is accused of being out to "get" Mencken, because he dares criticize institutions which they seemingly approve of. It can't be done. The only thing they have accomplished is to increase the circulation by about five hundred per cent.

HELEN SHAW pulled a "boner" at the Davis Prize Speaking last week. Discouraged at the competition or perhaps overawed by the gathering of distinguished listeners, she allowed her carefully prepared and beautiful speech to die an untimely death in the third paragraph. However, she has the consolation of knowing that only the good die young.

"JUST A KISS" managers are inviting the general public to attend their performance tomorrow and Friday nights. The confidence of these derided would-be professionals is truly astonishing. Everyone will probably go if only to see if it really is as good as "Blossom Time" or "The Student Prince" as press announcements have led us to believe. The Troubadours are setting a high standard for their performance. Let us hope that pride goeth not before a fall.

HIGH SCHOOL NIGHT in the gymnasium will attract the attention of fraternities and sororities. Primarily meant as a move to attract Washington high school graduates to the local university, it develops into a sort of happy hunting ground for location of next year's prospects. There are no rules for rushing in an informal way before registration. After all, why have any rules? The more rules, the more opportunity for some sororities who believe in "getting the girls at any price" to take advantage of others who abide by regulations.

MAY DAY was celebrated last Saturday with a picnic for girls in sports. Athletic awards were made, races run, and games and stunts made interesting pastimes. This should be an annual event in the University, the kind of thing that Presentation Chapel was back in high school days, a time for fulfillment when good work for the different G. W. activities is given its just reward.

AWARD LETTERS IN GIRLS' SPORTS AT MAY DAY FETE

Basketball and Rifle Awards Made at First Event of Kind Ever Held

NEW BLAZER PLANNED

Individual Point Honors Go to Ruth Jackson with Ermytrude Vaiden Second

Letters and trophies were awarded in the various girls' sports at the first annual May Day Fete held last Saturday afternoon in Rock Creek Park near Pierce Mill. The Fete was sponsored by the Women's Advisory Council and was attended by about a hundred guests. Amid the enthusiasm that usually accompanies such a gala occasion the guests were conveyed in automobiles to the park where gayety reigned supreme throughout the entire afternoon. Novelty races with prizes for the winners featured as the opening event and created keen interest among the contestants.

Ermytrude Vaiden, presiding as toastmistress of the occasion, opened the more serious part of the program by presenting Ella April of the Council who welcomed the guests. Following this Professor A. F. Johnson spoke for a few minutes on girls' athletics from the standpoint of the faculty, declaring that the University was directly behind all the various activities of the women students.

Letters Presented

The director of Women's Athletics, Miss Virginia Hopkins, after talking on the athletics of the year and the plans for next year's work presented the girls of the Varsity basketball squad with the G. W. letters. The girls who won the major G. W. are Alys Ewers, captain of this year's team, Winifred Faunce, captain of next year's team, Ermytrude Vaiden, manager, Grace Young, Louise Braswell, Jean Jackson, Betty Armstrong, Elizabeth Hastings, Cecile Taylor and Leah Cate. Betty Brandenburg, Grace Lear, Louise Omwake, Eva Pope and Grace Paynter were given the minor letters. Miss Hopkins in behalf of her excellent work as basketball coach was given the major G. W. letter. Lonnelle Davison representing Pan-hellenic announced that this inter-Greek association will present awards in the form of gold basketballs to the members of the Varsity basketball teams and crossed rifles to the Varsity rifle squad.

Rifle Girls Honored

Dean Rose awarded the following girls composing the rifle squad with major G. W.'s: Ermytrude Vaiden, Betsy Fries, Helen Taylor, Mae Huntzberger, Katherine Shoemaker, Sophia Waldman and Edna Kilpatrick. Patty Ann Jamieson, Elizabeth Garber Ethel Theis, and Alice Williams received minor letters.

GIVE STUNT NIGHT FOR HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS

Acts From Vodvil, Talks on Activities And Dancing Will Furnish Amusement

High School Night will be celebrated at the University this Saturday night, May 8, in the Gymnasium. Representatives of the various high school alumni clubs will make the high school seniors feel at home.

Several acts from the Vodvil will be presented, including the Russian Peasant Dance of Phi Mu, the Backward Gym Class of Gamma Beta Pi, and possibly Chi Omega's Courtship of Miles Standish.

Talks on student activities, athletics, etc., will be given by President Lewis, Professor Henry Grattan Doyle and H. Watson Crum.

After these forms of entertainment have been disposed of there will be dancing, which will last until midnight.

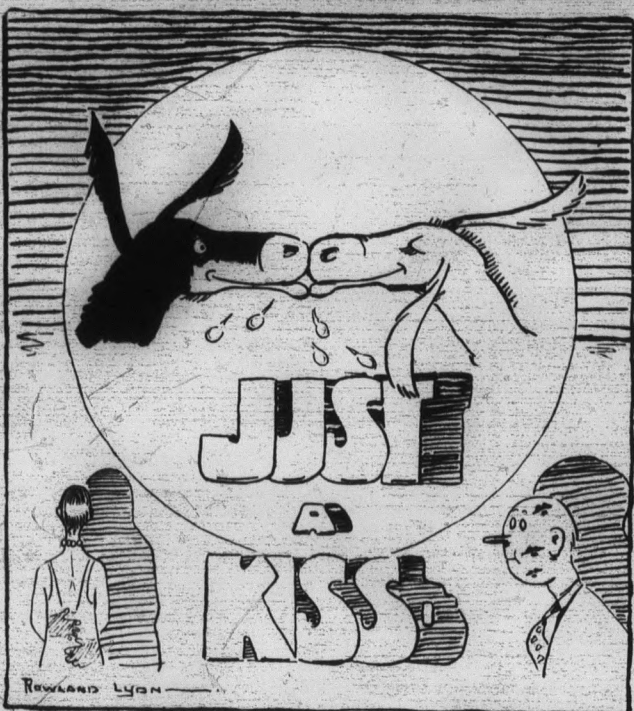

FRANK SMITH WINS DAVIS PRIZE CONTEST

George E. O'Conner is Second and Raymond Weber Third in Annual Event Held Recently

First prize in the Davis Prize Speaking contest held in Corcoran Hall, Tuesday evening, April 27, was won by Frank Smith, who delivered an oration on "The Recognition of Russia." Dean Wilbur introduced the speaker and presided at the contest.

George E. O'Conner, speaking on "America's Air Defense," took second prize and Raymond Weber, who spoke on "Chemistry and National Defense," was awarded the third prize. Fifteen dollars or a gold medal of that value will be awarded to the first prize winner, ten dollars to the second prize winner and five dollars to the third.

Others in the contest were S. G. Bucia, Helen Shaw and Marjorie Mothershead. Professor Robert R. Kern, Professor Samuel F. Bemis and Dr. John A. Tillema were the judges. During the intermission the Men's quartet of the Glee Club rendered selections.

SENIOR PROM SET FOR JUNE FOURTH

Opening Affair To Be Followed By Other Events in Honor of Graduates

CONVOCATION ON JUNE 9

President and Mrs. Lewis Hold Reception on Afternoon of Convocation

Further plans for Senior Week were discussed at a meeting of the Senior Class presidents of the various colleges and the chairmen of committees, Sunday afternoon, May 2. A committee not heretofore announced in the Hatchet is that on Favors and Decorations, which is composed of Frances Walker, Chairman, Jeanne Gravat, Vice Chairman and Lonnelle Davison, Walter B. Lawrence, Howard Gordon, and Ronald Cox.

Senior Week will be ushered in by the Senior Promenade, Friday evening, June 4, at the Mayflower Hotel. Dick Liebert's Sangamo Orchestra will furnish the syncopation for the occasion. Novel program favors the nature of which is being kept secret are promised. The subscription is placed at five dollars.

Mt. Vernon Trip

On Saturday, June 5, the class will make its annual pilgrimage to Mount Vernon, the shrine of the patron of the University. Plans for the day include luncheon at Mount Vernon, the cost of which will be included in the round-trip ticket. More definite arrangements will be announced at a later date in the Hatchet.

The Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered Sunday, June 6, in the afternoon probably on the back campus. Cap and gown are usually worn on this occasion.

Two events of Senior Week are scheduled for Monday, June 7. There will be a baseball game between the faculty and the Pyramid Honor Society in the afternoon, or so it is planned. The George Washington Alumni will entertain the Seniors with a reception and dance Monday evening, June 7.

Class Night June 8

Class exercises are to be given on the evening of June 8. The Senior Week Committee felt that all members of the class should have an equal opportunity to attend this affair, so are making this possible by arranging for a night during the week of senior festivities. The Class Night program includes a short speech of welcome from the Senior class president of each of the colleges, a salutatory address, Class History, Class Prophecy, the Valedictory address, G. W. songs and possibly selections by the Glee Club. Cap and Gown will again be worn at this affair.

President and Mrs. Lewis will hold a reception for the graduating class Wednesday afternoon, June 9.

Convocation is scheduled for the evening of June 9, at which time degrees will be awarded to the graduates of the several colleges.

Five pounds of candy have been presented to Kappa Delta, announcing the engagement of Virginia May Pate to Mr. E. Hilliard Macomber.

CLASS POEM WANTED

All members of the senior classes are requested to submit a class poem. Contributions should be submitted to Caroline West in person or sent to her in care of Chi Omega Sorority, 2024 G St., N. W. The best one chosen will be read at the class night exercises.

CHEMISTS WIN AND LOSE ON DIAMOND

Defeat Engineers and Lose to Columbians in Games Last Week

HEAVY HITTING FEATURES

Columbian and Engineering College Teams Tied for League Lead; Games This Week

A shower of home runs coupled with numerous errors marked last Monday's slugfest between the Chemistry nine and the Engineers' team. The Chemists took over the "Surveyors" by a 20 to 5 count. Fastow pitched a good game of ball for the winners, while Herzog, hurling for the Engineers, was touched for a host of hits, many of them long drives. The game was rather loosely played throughout.

Friday's encounter saw a much improved Columbian College nine show the way to the Chemists by a score of 9 to 6 in a fast, well-played game. Hottel drew the mound assignment for the Columbians, and handled the duties in a fine fashion, allowing but few hits and still fewer passes. Guy also aided materially in sewing up his game by smashing out a home run late in the fracas. Fastow and Clapper hurled for the losers, with Goldstein as their battery mate.

Tied for Lead

The Engineers and Columbian College are now tied for first place in the league, each having won two and lost one. The Chemists are still last, with one win and three losses charged against them.

Games are being played this week, and the series will probably end next week. It is expected that those players who have shown up to best advantage in the Intra-Mural games will be chosen for berths on the Varsity which will soon be selected. Judging by the material which has turned out for the series, Coach Crum will have little difficulty in picking his varsity nine, which will probably engage several nearby and local college nines.

AWARD TO BE MADE IN PEACE ESSAY CONTEST

Weddell Prize of $250 Is Given Each Year for International Peace Plan

The Annual Peace Essay contest closed last Saturday and the essays were submitted to the committee for their judgment. The committee is composed of Charles E. Hill, chairman; Oscar B. Hunter of the Medical School; and Charles S. Collier of the Law School.

The prize is $250, offered annually from a fund established by Mrs. Virginia Chase Weddell, to that student registered for a degree in the University who submits the best essay of not less than 5,000 words on "The Promotion of Peace Among the Nations of the World."

A complete list of the contestants will be made public next week.

SUTHERLAND AND GEN. PERSHING JOIN ALUMNI

Justice George Sutherland of the United States Supreme Court has recently become a life member of the George Washington Alumni Association. The Association has also received a check from General John Pershing in payment of his Alumni dues for the year.

Both of these distinguished men have received honorary degrees from the University.

BLUE KEY SOCIETY, TO ENFORCE FROSH RULES, IS FORMED

More Than Twenty Freshmen Leaders Working on Organization of New Body

TO RELINQUISH CONTROL

President's Student Advisory Committee to Turn Control of Club Over to Class of 1929

The long-awaited advent of an organization for the proper regulation of freshmen students and with it the promotion of a more definite class and University spirit at George Washington can now be acclaimed in the formation of the Blue Key Society. This body has been fostered by the President's Student Advisory Committee and is being organized under the direction of Henry H. James and Sterry R. Waterman of that body.

The new society is composed of members of the sophomore class, this first group being taken from the freshman class this year who will be the sophomores of next season. Organization has only reached tentative stages, but more than twenty leaders among this year's freshmen have signified a willingness to put the club across. Several meetings have been held during the past month, and a committee has been appointed to work up a constitution.

Clubs of like nature are successfully performing important functions in colleges and universities all over the country, being usually designated as "Key" Clubs with the University color prefixed, such as Crimson Key Club and Gold Key Club.

No National Organization

While there is really no nation-wide federation of these societies to direct the actions of the several bodies, the objects and basis are practically the same in each case.

The primary motive of the Club is to maintain the proper relationship between the freshmen and the upper classes. A secondary motive is to promote general class unity and spirit. Successful campus and intercollegiate life is regarded as depending in direct proportion upon the intensity of class and university spirit.

This organization imposes no restriction on membership other than that the members must be sophomores. After full arrangements have been made and the Blue Key Society has become well organized the Advisory Committee will withdraw its support. The Society will elect officers and decide upon a suitable insignia for its members in the near future.

Membership in the club in years to come will probably be decided on the action of the outgoing members of the society each year, thus perpetuating the organization.

MEN'S DEBATING TEAM VICTOR OVER MARYLAND

Gain Decision on Department of Education Question in Contest at College Park, Md.

The Men's Debating Team of George Washington scored another victory Thursday evening, March 29, 1926, when three of its representatives took the decision in a forensic contest with a trio of Maryland at College Park.

George O'Neil, Daniel O'Brien and Frank Witter of the latter institution were unsuccessful in their attempt to justify the adoption of the resolution that House Bill 5000, establishing a Federal Department of Education, The George Washington team, composed of Edward Gallagher, James S. Kirkland and John Seymour, contended against the adoption of this bill, and convinced the judges, Messrs. Twomey, Burton and Baldwin, of the impracticability of such action.

The debate was held before a small audience and marked the close of the George Washington schedule. By winning this decision, the standing of the team is raised from a tie to a "score" of: won, four; lost, three.

Two of the Teams' men, Williamson and Gallagher, acted in collaboration with Dr. Niles of Johns Hopkins, in judging contestants for the National Oratorical Contest for the State of Maryland held Friday night at the same place.

DIONYSIANS MEET

The Dionysians will hold their usual meeting in the rehearsal room tonight. All members are required to attend and to be prepared to make returns for the tickets.

SENIOR RINGS

Senior rings will be on display in the Hatchet Office from 12:15 to 1:00 and from 4:00 to 5:10 every day again this week. Order now to get your rings before graduation. Any person with 60 hours credit is permitted to buy his class ring.

ORIGINAL MUSICAL COMEDY TO OPEN TOMORROW NIGHT

Book, Lyrics, and Music of "Just A Kiss" Are Work of G. W. Students

WILL RUN TWO NIGHTS

Choruses Composed of Girls Popular On Campus; Run Special Numbers

"Just A Kiss," the Troubadours musical comedy goes on the boards in the Gymnasium on the nights of Thursday, May 6 and Friday May 7, at 8:30 p. m., under the supervisory direction of Miss Katherine Brown, the dramatic coach.

It is the final production of the current dramatic festival. The cup awarded by the Phi Delta Gamma forensic fraternity to the club putting on the best play will be presented to the winning organization on the second night of "Just A Kiss."

The sine qua non of musical comedy, the dancing choruses, have been training for weeks every day in the gymnasium under the able direction of Mary Virginia Leckie, assisted by Elsie Talbert, Abbie Burke, and Louise Braswell. These choruses include some of the most popular girls in school and they will undoubtedly present for the delectation of the audience something new and fascinating on the subject of musical comedy choruses.

Annabelle Lloyd Stars

The cast is headed by Annabelle Lloyd in the role of "Rosamond," the society editor of a large New York newspaper. Ellsworth Tompkins and Ben Cain share the male leads. Bill Clementson, as a pseudo-poet, and Ruth Newburn as an Irish waitress, wield the slap-stick of the show with agility, grace and precision. Ruth Hutchinson and Morris Larson round out the cast, the former as the editor of an "Advice to the Love-Lorn" column, and the latter as the conventional collegiate who becomes the conventional bond salesman.

All in all, "Just A Kiss" is reported to be a worth-while show, and that is not all of it. The Men's Glee Club, as well as a picked group of eight girls will support the dancing choruses with choral singing.

There are scheduled just enough, and not too many musical specialties; Frances Dengler, Mary Virginia Leckie, and the Hooper brothers. An orchestra of eight pieces conducted by Elmer Brown will play for the performances.

Play Is Original

"Just A Kiss" is original throughout. The musical score was composed by Jack Hutchings, with one composition each, furnished by Joan Collins and Marion Campbell. The lyrics, save for two done by Mary Virginia Leckie and Marion Campbell are the work of Larry Parker. The book itself was written by Sterry Waterman and Larry Parker. The dance steps are not stolen from professional shows, but were worked out by Mary Virginia Leckie at the Thayer Studio step by step to the music, as composed.

Great interest in the production has been shown by the local newspapers, and several of the song numbers have been broadcast by the cast over the radio.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB FETED AT BANQUET

Annual Event Is Held at Franklin Square Hotel; Concert Given Last Tuesday

One of the most successful social events of the year was the George Washington University girls' glee club banquet held last evening at the Franklin Square Hotel. Miss Estelle Wentworth acted as toastmistress for the occasion and covers were laid for sixty girls.

The hall was attractively decorated and the place cards were artistic and individual.

The feature of the evening was an entertainment consisting of excerpts from "Martha" presented by Miss Wentworth. The cast included Ruth Barnhart Mayberry, Nina Norman and Woodruff Young. This event marks the culmination of the most active and enterprising season the Glee Club has ever had.

The Club gave a delightful concert last Tuesday evening for the Business Women's Council of the Church of the Covenant.

The program was enthusiastically received by the audience. The club and the Ever-Ready Group, quartet and soloists responded to many encores.

SHALL WE KEEP TENNIS?

The girls' tennis team has an interesting trip ahead of it—each member is able to raise fifteen dollars to pay her expenses. Seventy-five dollars is a small amount to the University, but fifteen dollars is a prohibitive amount to some of the best girls on the tennis team.

Last year this team was the only one representing the University which achieved a perfect record of wins against first-class competition. This year the girls must pay for the privilege of defending this enviable reputation for their alma mater. Yet hockey has its appropriation, though it is a newer sport than tennis, and less advantageous to the University. It is false economy to cut off the most flourishing of activities with no appropriation and to apply the money to new ones with reputation yet to be made.

Tennis was left out of the student activity appropriations because the inefficiency of last year's manager, appointed by sorority politics, allowed the team to take an extensive trip without a chaperone. This was considered sufficient excuse for cutting this year's team out of any means of support, although there were on the trip two girls twenty-four and twenty-five years of age. The reputation of tennis in the University should not suffer because the inexperience of one girl caused a rather harmless blunder.

"JUST A KISS"

The University has just reason to be proud of what promises to be one of the outstanding events of school history, the Troubadour's presentation on tomorrow evening of "Just a Kiss." The production of an original musical show is a vital achievement on the part of any college. But when we consider that this is the first effort of its kind to attain fruition at George Washington, when we learn that as a dramatic vehicle it is on a larger scale than any in the past history of the school, when we realize that the book, lyrics, and music, not to mention staging, costuming, and acting are all the work of our own students, we can not help but feel a bit "chesty" at placing in this type of college activity. Too much praise and credit can not be given to the authors of the piece, to the untiring efforts of the officers and members of the Troubadours, and to the young ladies of the ensemble who have practiced so tirelessly day after day to make the chorus everything that a chorus should be.

For the first time in recent dramatic history at G. W., a production is to be given two performances, May 6 and 7. Student support is pretty well assured. But, again, for the first time, the attendance of the general public is solicited. They are assured of entertainment which will need no apology; the other events of the Dramatic Festival have demonstrated that.

This event is not only important as an achievement in dramatics. As a creative effort and product of student originality, it should serve as an indication to the people of Washington that the student body is awake to the possibilities of a greater George Washington of spirit as well as fact.

ATTENTION, THE PALACE!

In the overture played before the publicity opus for old "Hawvard," shown at the Palace Theatre last week, the many George Washington University students present listened expectantly to the playing of the college songs, and as the various members of the audience expressed their applause at the different numbers, saved their enthusiasm for the first strains of their own Alma Mater song. The Princeton song, the Washington and Lee Swing, the Navy song, all were played in order. Then the orchestra struck up Georgetown's song and the G. U. contingent responded accordingly. Next the Catholic University pennant flashed on the announcement board and the boys from Brookland let out a whoop. Then, to the great consternation of the Hatchettes present, Tom Gannon's boys swung into the Yale song, and closed the overture with strains from the Harvard campus.

All of which is by way of reminding our friends down at the Palace that we feel that we have been unjustly discriminated against. We have perfectly good college songs as well as other universities have, and it was certainly an oversight on the part of the Palace orchestra in leaving us out of this collegiate overture.

Phi Sigma Sigma held its formal initiation at the Lee House, Thursday, April 22, followed by a banquet. The initiates were Kate Bein, Clara Bogard, Lilly Brunschwig, Edith Dresden, Eva Goldiver, Irene Husher, Sylvia Scheer and Augusta Silverman.

The formal initiation dance of Phi Sigma Sigma was held at the Lafayette Hotel, Thursday April 29.

The active chapter of Sigma Kappa was delightfully surprised by an ice cream party given by Edith Porter, a Sigma from Wisconsin, to announce her engagement to Arthur J. Ganther, of Wisconsin.

Ruth Anthony Barnhart has announced her marriage to James Elmer Mayberry. Ruth is a Sigma Kappa, and soloist for the Girls' Glee Club. Mr. Mayberry recently resigned from the Navy and has entered business with his father. He is a graduate of the Academy.

Zeta chapter of Sigma Kappa held initiation and a banquet at the Raleigh Hotel on Saturday, May 1, for the following girls: Evelyn Fletcher, Elizabeth Garber, Agnes Goodloe, Eleanor Hall, Dorothea Matz, Betty Moody, Margaret Moreland, Muriel Michel, Mary Ann Westcott and Elizabeth Wright.

Sigma Kappa announces the pledging of Edna Burroughs.

The pledges of Sigma Kappa entertained the chapter with a vaudeville show in Corcoran Hall, at the end of which a victrola was presented to the chapter.

C. Melville Walker, editor of the Hatchet in 1921-22, and member of Pyramid, Pi Delta Epsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon, old Student Council, and who holds his A. B. and LL. B. from George Washington University has opened an office for the general practice of law in the Denrike Building, 1010 Vermont Avenue, N. W.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at Christ Church in Georgetown Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, uniting Lydia Smith and Bernie Mayo. Miss Smith is a graduate of Randolph Macon College but attended G. W. last year. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha. Mr. Mayo is a G. W. graduate and a member of Kappa Sigma.

Founders' Day was celebrated by Eta Alpha chapter of Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity at a banquet held in the blue room of the Hotel Hamilton, Monday evening, May 3. Honor guests of the evening included Professor Elmer Louis Kayser, secretary of the University, Dean Hugh Miller of the College of Engineering, and Dr. Mitchell, who aided in the formation of the old local chapter of Kappa Tau Omega. More than forty active and alumni members attended the banquet.

Jimmy Naylor, our specialty dancer has gone and left us! Jimmy left Saturday for San Francisco where he has accepted a position. Before leaving, his Kappa Sig brothers entertained at a farewell dance in his honor Friday evening.

Miss Frances Davis was hostess at seven tables of bridge in the Chi O rooms on Thursday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Hazel Davis, whose marriage to Ensign Harry Keith will take place on May 15. The latter is a G. W. graduate and a member of Sigma Kappa sorority.

Among the G. W. Girls of the Congressional set who acted as ushers at the Democratic-Republican game, Saturday afternoon were Gretchen Campbell and Ruth Greenwood.

The Delta Pi chapter of Sigma Nu entertained with what is acclaimed to be the most successful dance of the year Friday evening. Co-eds, Sangamo music and perfect weather all contributed to the general good cheer of the party—but who were the uninvited guests who arrived late?

The Kappa Alpha chapter at the University of Maryland had as their guests at their annual Spring Formal, Monday evening at the Congressional Country Club, quite a few co-eds from G. W. and a number of members of the chapter here.

The members of Sigma Chi entertained at a most enjoyable dance last Friday at their house on N street.

Dean Rose was at home to the women of the University on Wednesday afternoon. Officers and members of the Y. W. C. A. assisted in serving.

FILIPINOS GIVE MUSICAL PROGRAM FRIDAY NIGHT

Congressman Jones Will Speak on Filipino Affairs; String Circle to Play

The Philippinians, an organization of Filipino students of George Washington University, will hold its annual program in Corcoran Hall Friday, May 7, beginning at 8.30. Professor Elmer L. Kayser, secretary of the University, will represent the faculty at the meeting.

A message of greeting to the Club has come from President Lewis through Professor Moss, the Club's advisor. The principal speaker of the evening will be Congressman Marvin Jones, of Texas, who will address the Club with relation to Filipino affairs. Violin solos will be rendered by a co-ed of the University while a Filipino string "circle" will also give selections. The public is invited.

ENGINEERS WILL HOLD ANNUAL SPRING DANCE

Franklin Square to Be Scene of Affair To be Held May 7; Tickets Now on Sale

Many features and special attractions will serve to make the annual spring dance of the George Washington Engineering society the greatest in the history of that organization. The ball room and lounge of the Franklin Square Hotel have been secured for Saturday night, May 7, from 10 to 1 and tickets are now on sale and may be obtained from any member of the Engineering society.

Committee chairmen have refused to divulge the nature of the specialties with the exception of the favors, features and prizes as originally announced. The Engineers have been working under the direction of Claude Howison, chairman of the event, Sherod Earle and May Bergin. Preparations have been under way during the past month but the ticket sale was delayed by a change in the date for the dance.

Among the patrons and patronesses will be Dr. and Mrs. William Mather Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Lincoln Hodgkins, Professor and Mrs. Henry Grattan Doyle, Dean Hugh Miller, Dean Anna Lorette Rose, Miss Linda Jane Kincannon and Miss Jones. The girls of the Sphinx Honor society, who have served at the luncheons of the Engineering Society during the past year, are also to be guests at the event. The chaperones include Professor and Mrs. Platt, Professor and Mrs. Ames, Professor and Mrs. Johnson, and Professor and Mrs. Lapham.

FRATERNITY COUNCIL ELECTS BILL QUARTON

S. A. E. and Sigma Chi to Play Match Again to Settle Question of Winner

Officers for the coming year were elected at the meeting of the Interfraternity Council held at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house last Sunday morning. William Quarton, Sigma Chi delegate, was elected president of the council to succeed Sterry R. Waterman, of Delta Theta Phi.

Sanford B. Teu, Delta Tau Delta representative, was elected vice-president, Vernon Brown, Theta Delta Chi, was elected secretary, and Willard McGraw, Kappa Alpha, was elected treasurer.

The tennis difficulty between Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Chi was settled by an order to the effect that the match be replayed.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR AND FOOTBALL STAR SUSPECTED OF HEINOUS CRIME

Crum and Clapper Are Accused of Defacing Public Golf Links in Thrilling Match Played Last Saturday Morning; Detectives Working on Gruesome Case

"Maud" Crum known as the "Babe."

GIRLS HOLD SWIM MEET TONIGHT AT Y. W. POOL

Dean Rose to Present Cup and Other Awards to Winners in Various Events

The women's interclass swimming meet and exhibition to be held tonight at eight o'clock at the Y. W. C. A. pool will have as an added interest the presentation of a cup, donated by Spaulding's, to the winning class, and a bathing suit, given by the Sport Mart, to the highest individual point scorer. Badges will be presented to the winners of first, second, and third places in the various events. The awards will be made by Dean Rose, Ada Moody of Central High School; Florence Skadding of the Capital Athletic Club, and Virginia Hopkins of George Washington will judge the events.

Secret Service operatives now working on the case are confident that the culprits will soon be apprehended. As yet, no information as to their whereabouts is available; but detectives are keeping close watch on the Gymnasium about noon, at which time, it is said, Crum usually arrives at his office.

It is rumored that the alleged crime was perpetrated as the direct result of a challenge to mortal combat at the hazardous and honorable pastime, issued by Crum, who is said to be the Director of Athletics at George Washington, and accepted eagerly by Clapper. Crum, who had boasted of his superiority at the gentle sport, saw that he was being hopelessly outclassed by the "Babe," and became highly indignant, venting his wrath upon the greensward.

All girls having clothes in the gym lockers are advised to remove them before Wednesday, as anything in the gym after that day will be sold to the Salvation Army by Miss Hopkins.

PHI SIGS HOLD LEAD IN FRAT BASEBALL

Sigma Nu Draws Up to Tie With Sigma Chi Team in League A

SERIES DRAWS TO CLOSE

Games May 9 Last on League Schedules; Championship Game Slated For May 16

Phi Sigma Kappa leads in League B of the interfraternity baseball series with four victories in four games. In League A Sigma Chi is tied with Sigma Nu, each team having won two and lost none. In Sunday's games Phi Sigma Kappa won from Acacia, Sigma Nu took a close game from Theta Upsilon Omega and Sigma Phi Epsilon vanquished Kappa Alpha.

Despite the fact that Sangler, Acacia pitcher, fanned eleven men Phi Sigma Kappa shut out the Masons and garnered fourteen runs for themselves. Murphy, Gary and Walter, all Phi Sigs, got home runs. Phi Sigma Kappa made two double plays. Only once did an Acacia get as far as third base.

Batteries were, for Phi Sigma Kappa, Glover and Stehman; for Acacia, Spangler and Wingard.

Sigma Nu Wins Close Game

Sigma Nu won by the narrow margin of 10 to 9 from Theta Upsilon Omega. In the final inning of the game when T. U. O. had the bases loaded, Delashmutt's catch of a high foul from Vic Koch's bat for the last out put Sigma Nu into a tie with Sigma Chi for first place in the league, and spoiled T. U. O.'s chances of putting even a single game into the win column.

Theta Upsilon Omega, following the custom it has established in the frat games, made another double play in Sunday's game. Hottel was credited with a home run. Batteries for T. U. O. were Herzog and Koch. Athey, Hottel and Bun Tolson were the pitchers used by Sigma Nu, and Delashmutt caught the whole game.

Sigma Phi Epsilon took the long end of a score of 15 to 3 in a five inning game with Kappa Alpha. S. P. E. was credited with 17 hits and Kappa Alpha 5. Corbin, Jean and Mount of Sigma Phi Epsilon got home runs.

Batteries were: Sigma Phi Epsilon, Jean and Healy; Kappa Alpha, Neville and Wisehart. Jean struck out 5 and Neville 3.

Theta Deltas Forfeit

Kappa Sigma got credit for a game by default from Theta Delta Chi which has entered no team in the league. Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon were unable to get together for their game Sunday. It has not been determined whether the game should be credited to one of the teams by default or played at some future time.

Games May 9 are Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Sigma Nu; Acacia vs. Kappa Alpha; Phi Sigma Kappa vs. Kappa Sigma; Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Theta Delta Chi. One additional game, between Sigma Nu and Sigma Chi will be played during the week of May 9. The winner in each league will meet May 16 to decide the championship.

Team standings:

League A
	Won	Lost	Pct.
Sigma Chi	2	0	1.000
Sigma Nu	2	0	1.000
Sigma Alpha Epsilon	1	0	1.000
Delta Tau Delta	2	2	.500

THREE FRAT TEAMS LEFT IN NET SERIES

Theta Delta Chi, Sigma Chi, and Phi Sigma Kappa in Semi-Finals

SIGMA CHI DEFEATS S. A. E.

Remaining Teams to Draw for Bye in Next Round; Winners to Play for Title

Three teams enter the semi-finals of the interfraternity tennis tournament, Theta Delta Chi, Sigma Chi and Phi Sigma Kappa. The matches in the past week have been played early in the morning on the monument tennis courts to make it possible for the tournament to be completed before the final exams.

Phi Sigma Kappa defeated Sigma Nu in three straight matches. Detweiler, Phi Sigma Kappa, won easily from Kendall, Sigma Nu, 7-5, 6-2; Niebell defeated Hill, 6-0, 13-11; while in the doubles Niebell and Detweiler, Phi Sigma Kappa, teamed up and defeated Kendall and Harper, Sigma Nu, 9-7, 6-4.

Sigma Chi had little difficulty eliminating S. A. E. from the tournament. This was the first appearance of the S. A. E. team as they drew a bye at the beginning of the tournament. Emms, Sigma Chi, defeated Durand, S. A. E., 6-1, 6-1; Stickler, Sigma Chi, won from Allshouse, S. A. E., 5-7, 6-3, 6-1; while in the doubles Emms and Stickler, Sigma Chi, defeated Durand and Lewis, S. A. E., 6-3, 7-5.

T. D. C. Beats D. T. D.

Theta Delta Chi were extended to the utmost to win from Delta Tau Delta. It was necessary to play all five matches before the contest was decided. Abrams, Delta Tau Delta, defeated Wemple, Theta Delta Chi, 6-1, 6-0; Battle, Theta Delta Chi, won from Montstream, Delta Tau Delta, 6-2, 6-4; in the first doubles, Abrams and Montstream, Delta Tau Delta, lost to Wemple and Battle, Theta Delta Chi, 6-4, 6-4; Eckles, Delta Tau Delta, defeated Brown, Theta Delta Chi, 7-5, 6-4. The last doubles went to Theta Delta Chi, 6-4, 6-4. Eckles and Nickols were unable to set them back.

The Interfraternity Council decided last Sunday to allow the three teams to draw and the one that drew a bye was to go into the finals uncontested. The tournament will probably be decided this week sometime as the fraternities are trying to finish their matches as soon as possible.

SPLINTERS FROM SPORTDOM

Securing Athletic Material

Competition or "Wins"?

Track Team at Navy

By DOMY DOMIGAN

With exams only a few weeks away, it is time to plan our athletic program for next year. And an essential part of that program is the securing of good athletic material. Many of us will remain in Washington this summer while many will spend their vacation elsewhere. But wherever we are, we will continually come in contact with young people—both as prospective students and as prospective athletes—and no inducement is so strong as being able to "sell" our University. That much is up to the student and if G. W. is to gain a controlling position in athletics, we must, to that extent, be responsible for such gain.

A few years ago, George Washington seemed content to confine athletic competition to schools of little better than the academy class and if there were a few victories, the season was called a success. But an advancement has been made in the policy of the present athletic regime. For the past two years, the tendency has been to substitute stronger for the weaker teams customarily on our schedule and next year the idea promises to be carried still further. We certainly can congratulate Coach Crum in sacrificing his percentage showing for a few games really worth while, seeing more to be gained by a good fight against a "real team" than a meaningless victory over a weak sister.

Next Saturday the track team journeys to Annapolis where Navy is to be met in a dual meet. Although the middles ordinarily step in the best of competition, the boys are optimistic over the prospect of at least making a good showing with the prospect of some of the local stars gaining certain individual honors. This meet—with the C. U. and Gallaudet meets following—completes the schedule for the season. The latter two have been our traditional opponents in track along with Juniata who was dropped this year to enable the team to take the trip to William and Mary.

One of the more demure of the sorority pledges wishes to announce that her engagement to her boy friend out West has been suspended for the remainder of the school year. Address all bids to Helen, care of Pi Phi.

RACKETERS WIN CLOSE MATCH FROM ST. JOHNS

Games Hotly Contested, But Scores Show Wide Margin for G. W. Team

Making a clean sweep of the three doubles matches and gaining well-earned decisions in four of the six singles matches the George Washington University men's tennis team defeated the St. John's College racketers in a match held at Annapolis last Saturday.

Abrams and Provost of G. W. U. in winning the second of the doubles matches from Smith and Snyder of the St. John's team, administered the first defeat of the season to that pair. The first set of this match went to the Annapolis duet 11-9 after a hard battle. After this the Hatchetmen had things well in hand, winning the next two sets with the loss of but two games.

A team rating of the first eight men has been announced by Joe Rutley, acting as captain and manager, and is as follows: Newby, Rutley, Detweiler, Abrams, Durand, Provost, Kendall and Sickler. Places on the team may be gained through the challenge process, working from the eighth man up.

Several other matches are being arranged by the manager and will be played in the near future. A summary of the St. John's match follows. Singles—Detweiler, G. W., defeated Von Hartz, St. J., 6-4, 6-3; Rutley, G. W., defeated Smith, St. J., 6-4, 6-2; Abrams, G. W., defeated Clark, St. J., 6-2, 6-2; Snyder, St. J., defeated Provost, G. W., 6-4, 6-1; O'Neill, St. J., defeated Niebell, G. W., 6-4, 6-4; Durand, G. W., defeated Garrison, St. J., 6-1, 6-0.

Doubles—Detweiler and Rutley, G. W., defeated Clark and Von Hartz, St. J., 6-4, 6-3; Abrams and Provost, G. W., defeated Smith and Snyder, St. J., 9-11, 6-2, 6-0; Durand and Niebell, G. W., defeated O'Neill and Miller, St. J., 6-2, 6-1.

Crows

In a field in sunny Spain stands a stone mortar. Crows hover around it, picking up bits of grain and chaff—cawing.

Here Marcheta, in the fresh beauty of her youth, will come to pound maize. For years she will pound maize. The stone will stand up under the blows; not a dent has the muscle of three generations of women made upon it. But the crows will hurl their black gibes upon a woman aging early and bent with toil. Old Marcheta—still in her thirties.

The American woman does not pound maize. But she still beats carpet; she still pounds clothes; she still pumps water. She exhausts her strength in tasks which electricity can do better, and in half the time.

The high ideals of a community mean little where woman is still doomed to drudgery. But the miracles which electricity already has performed indicate but a fraction of the vast possibilities for better living and the tremendous opportunities which the future developments in electricity will hold for the college man and woman.

Electricity, which can release woman from her burdens, has already created a revolution in American industry. Wherever mankind labors, General Electric motors can be found carrying loads, driving machinery and saving time and labor. And there is no branch of electrical development today to which General Electric has not made important contributions.

A series of G-E advertisements showing what electricity is doing in many fields will be sent on request. Ask for booklet GEK-1.

BEFORE you even look for the jack or tire-tools, tuck a neat wad of Prince Albert into the muzzle of your jimmy-pipe. Light up . . . and get yourself in the frame of mind where a flat tire is "all in the day's work." Talk about a gloom-chaser!

P. A. simply knocks troubles for a row of planished-steel mudguards. Its cool, soothing smoke percolates into your system, the sun crashes through the clouds, and everything is hotsy-totsy. Yes indeed, Fellows, Prince Albert is great tobacco.

And paste this in the fly-leaf of your thesaurus: P. A. can't bite your tongue or parch your throat, no matter how hard you hit it up. The Prince Albert process flunked Bite and Parch on their first examination. Get a tidy red tin of P. A. now and see.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

CHRISTIANITY IS SEEN AS ULTIMATE RELIGION

Prof. Richardson Defends Christian Religion to Ministerial Association

Although the age of violence against religion has passed to a large extent, we need to think straight in regard to religion in these days more than ever before, Prof. Richardson, head of the Department of Philosophy in George Washington University, told the members of the George Washington Ministerial Association in an address at their meeting last week.

Dr. Richardson read a paper on the subject, "Christianity as the Ultimate Religion." Reviewing the chief teachings and contributions of the principal religions of the world, he pointed out a number of reasons why he regarded Christianity as the ultimate religion. "Man has a supersensitive consciousness—a capacity to think of God—which the animals do not have. He not only has the capacity for religion; but empirically, he has been religious," Dr. Richardson declared. "There is a tendency now to think of religion as a relation between men. It involves that, but essentially it is a relation between God and man. The religion that brings man and God into close relationship is the ultimate religion. Jesus as possessing infinite nature brings God to man and Jesus as possessing human nature brings men to God," said Dr. Richardson.

The members of the organization extended a vote of thanks in appreciation to Prof. Richardson for his address. At the invitation of Rev. B. W. Johns, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Rockville, Md., who is a member of the organization, the members of the association will have charge of the Mothers' Day service at that church, May 9, at 8 p. m. President Cyrus Johnson will be in charge of the service. Brief talks will be given by J. H. Taylor, Mr. Petrie, W. R. Ogg, and Mr. Johnson. J. W. Butler will sing two solos. Others scheduled to participate in the service are: S. C. Anderson, F. T. Voorhees, and Gerard Snell.

ASKS HELP FOR OLD SHIP "CONSTITUTION"

Captain Cluvarius Asks Student Aid In Rebuilding Famous "Ironside"

The rebuilding of the old ship "Constitution" was the subject of a talk given in chapel last Wednesday by Captain W. T. Cluvarius, aide to the Secretary of the United States Navy. An appeal to the student body of the University for financial aid in restoring "Old Ironsides" to seaworthy condition was met by a cash collection, which was small because of the small number in attendance.

In his appeal Captain Cluvarius said, "Certainly it would seem appropriate in this college named for Washington that this vessel of our liberator, whose first helmsman was the great Washington himself, should be to you a symbol of the ship of State, of the Constitution itself. As an earnest of this belief, should not George Washington University, to the last student, make a contribution to the 'Old Ironsides' fund, going on record as the first university to do so. Your act will be broadcasted throughout the length and breadth of the United States."

Contributions will be gladly received by the chairman of the national committee of this fund, Rear Admiral Philip Andrews, U. S. N., Navy Yard, Boston, Massachusetts.

EPISCOPAL CLUB HOLDS MEETING AND DANCE

Next Meeting to Take Place Thursday, May 13.

The Episcopal Club held its annual election meeting last Thursday, April 29, in Corcoran Hall. The officers for the coming year are Rolston Lyon, president, Hunter Lewis, vice-president, W. Carroll Brooke, treasurer, Dorothy Field, recording secretary, and Ruth Burghart, corresponding secretary. After a few announcements the meeting adjourned in favor of "The Frogs."

Saturday evening the Club gave a large and highly successful dance in Corcoran Hall. A colored orchestra furnished music.

The next meeting of the Club will be held Thursday evening, May 13, in Room 23, Corcoran Hall. Members will assemble for supper in the University Cafeteria before the meeting as usual. At this meeting plans will be discussed for next year's policy.

Hatchet Reviews of Current Shows

By JOE D. WALSTROM

DON'T READ THIS

This week the National Theatre Players are giving "White Collars," a comedy. We are unable to confirm the rumor that all scenes are laid in a Chinese laundry.

By staying a third week at Loew's Columbia, "For Heaven's Sake," with Harold Lloyd, bids fair to become one of Washington's oldest institutions.

This week's feature at the Rialto is "The Gilded Butterfly," with Alma Rubens and Bert Lytell. Among the added attractions is the personal appearance of Fritz Scheff, the renowned musical comedy star. After devoting many years of research to the problem, we have decided to omit the Rialto review and devote such space to our world-famous Campus Critiques. This is directly in line with our policy of uplifting the culture of good old G. W. U. (Applause and cheers.)

METROPOLITAN

"Other Women's Husbands" featuring Monte Blue and Marie Prevost, is the Metropolitan's offering to the hungry hordes for this week. The theme is more or less of the same old thing—Marie wears the same masque that the other woman is going to wear to the ball where the husband is stepping out. Of course, she catches him in the act, and decides to divorce him, but she changes her mind in the middle of the trial, so its all right—in fact, the show is so innocent that you can take your three-year old sister with you if you want to.

Lloyd Hamilton lives up to his reputation for comedy in his skit, "Nobody's Business," and the weekly news reel is interesting.

Gene Austen, the tenor who makes our Victor records for us, saves the bill with his popular songs. Its a real treat to hear him when there's no chance of the darn phonograph running down, or of the needle making a hideous noise at the wrong time. BOB.

PALACE

Having just witnessed "The Runaway," this week's spasm at the Palace, this reviewer wishes to rise in meeting and exclaim sonorously that the picture is just another program filling melodrama of the much mooted mountains, but very interesting and often engaging withal. It concerns an almost edible little cinema cutie who beats it to the tall timber to escape arrest for the mysterious mangling of her lover. Up in the high hills she meets a handsome hill-billy, and, after three more reels, elects to stay with him out in the sunny side-hill suburbs instead of resuming her career and raising Hades among the Kleigs along Broadway.

Clara Bow snuggles around as the heroine, and Warner Baxter, George Baneroff and William Powell do themselves proud in the other roles.

The remainder of the program is given over to a Charley Chase comedy, Topics, and the Pathe News. During the showing of the latter, Sunday's audience soundly hissed Senator Upshaw and clapped hands over John Phillip Hill; therefore the audience must have been all wet. ROBACCIA.

CAMPUS CRITIQUES

The Dionysians' production of the classic Greek comedy of Aristophanes, "The Frogs" went off with professional finish. The smoothness of presentation does great credit to Miss Brown and her staff of assistants as well as to the large and competent cast. It is nothing short of remarkable what beautiful effects have been obtained on the gymnasium stage during the Festival by the skillful use of lighting and curtains. The scene on the River Styx with the chorus of frogs against a background of unbelievable beauty was one of the most startlingly effective stage pictures I have ever seen, anywhere. Charon's boat, which I understand is a product of Kermit Girdner's skill, deserves mention as one example of the ingenuity displayed by the Dionysians in this eminently worthwhile offering.

Not one line or cue was missed during the play, a tribute to the poise and hard work of a most satisfactory cast. Kermit Girdner's characterization of the effeminate Bacchus disguised as Hercules was as excellent a piece of work as one would wish to see. Leroy Bendheim's Xanthias, the Hercules of Robert Bunch and Pern Henninger's Euripides also deserve mention. As Aeschylus Tom Bentley has a tendency to "tear a passion to tatters," which, however, is a better sign for an amateur than underacting. The only part of importance in the play relegated to a female fell to Katherine Lacey, who handled her lines very well. Other roles were adequately filled. The chorus of frogs croaked their very best, while the choral dancers added a colorful touch to an already ornamental production. HELEN.

ANNUAL BANQUET HELD BY COLUMBIAN WOMEN

Many Prominent Guests Present at Affair Held April 29 at Chevy Chase Club

The Columbian Women held their annual banquet at the Chevy Chase Club on Thursday, April 29, with about two hundred members and guests present. Mrs. Henry Gratton Doyle presided, and Mrs. William Mather Lewis, Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook and Mrs. Davis Allan Robertson were the honor guests.

Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., only woman trustee of George Washington University extended greetings on behalf of the Chevy Chase Club. The speakers were Mrs. Mary T. Norton, Congresswoman from New Jersey, who spoke on "Service," Mrs. Sallie Pickett, society editor of the Star, who discussed newspaper work, and Mrs. Florence T. Kahn, Congresswoman from California, who spoke on "Women in Congress."

A stunt, called "Raising the $10,000" was given under the direction of Mrs. William E. Chamberlin and Miss Rhoda Watkins. The room was decorated with balloons, and programs were hand painted by Miss Irene Pistorio.

The next meeting of the club will be held on May 11. It will be the last for this year and the new officers will be elected then.

NEWMAN CLUB ELECTS O'CONNOR AS PRESIDENT

Joseph O'Connor was unanimously elected president of the Newman Club at a recent meeting. The other officers are Miss Pearl Mahoney, vice-president, Miss Helen Cotter, recording secretary, Miss Gaigher, corresponding secretary, Miss Collins, treasurer, and Tom Bentley, sergeant-at-arms. The advisory council is composed of Miss Louise McGuire, Miss Helen Connolly, and Miss Murphy.

FENNING GETS VOTE OF COLUMBIAN DEBATORS

The Columbian Debating Society heard the discussion of the question "Resolved, that Commissioner Fenning should be impeached" at their last meeting, Friday, April 23. The negative side of the issue, upheld by Jacob Rosenthal, was awarded the decision. The affirmative was advanced by William Simpson.

The next meeting of the Society will be held on May 7. The subject of discussion has not yet been announced.

GIRLS' TENNIS SCHEDULE INCLUDES VIRGINIA TRIP

Doubles Tournament for Z. T. A. Cup Begins Next Week; Four Couples Entered

Marie Didden, manager of girls' tennis, announces the following schedule for the Varsity team:

May 8, William and Mary, here; May 11, Marjorie Webster, here; May 15, Gallaudet, here; May 19, National Park, here; May 21, Fredericksburg Normal, Fredericksburg; May 22, William and Mary, Williamsburg.

All matches scheduled at home will be played on the monument courts, 17th and B, between 3.45 and 5.45.

The doubles tournament for the Z. T. A. cup will be held next week. The following couples have entered: Edith Petrie and Elizabeth Chickering, Frances Walker and Betty Garber, Leah Cate and Cecile Taylor, Miriam Davis and Marie Didden.

AWARD LETTERS AT MAY DAY FETE

ceived the minor letters. The medal given by the National Rifle Association for the highest aggregate score for the year was presented to Ermyrtrude Vaiden.

The Beginner's Rifle cup, given to that girl who as a beginner shot the highest score in the recent match, was presented to Frances Held who also won the rifle emblem for the highest scoring in the freshman class. Eileen Phillips rating the highest score for the sophomore class was also awarded the G. W. rifle emblem. Elsie Talbert, who ran a close second to the winner of the beginner's match won first honors in the junior class and was presented with the same award.

Ruth Jackson Gets Cup

Denn Rose in speaking of the awards that the school gives each year to members of the Varsity teams explained the new system which is to be started this year and will be the standard award that the school will give as an appreciation of the work the varsity sports have done. A buff colored blazer with the George Washington seal on the pocket will be the award and each year as more letters are won a stripe will be worn on the sleeve. This system is now in use in many of the leading colleges in the United States.

The Women's Advisory Council Cup, the first of its kind to be given by this organization, was presented by Louise Bannerman, representative of the Council, to Ruth Jackson who during the year participated in seven lines of athletic activity and accumulated 194 points. It was announced that Ermyrtrude Vaiden, the only girl in the University to receive two major letters, ran a close second with nine less points than the winner. Elizabeth Garber, a freshman, rated third place.

After this part of the program guests were entertained at a picnic supper with all the traditional good things to eat.

WHEN moonlight washes woodland and hills with platinum light. And the tour home is ready to begin—have a Camel!

For Camel makes every smooth tour smoother, adds of its own contentment to every delightful journey. Camels never tire your taste or leave a cigarette after-taste. Pay what you will, you'll never get choicer tobaccos than those in Camels.

So this night as the forest-topped hills race by in moonlit procession. As the magic road curves through the colonnades of birches—have then the finest made, regardless of price.

Have a Camel!

Camels contain the very choicest tobaccos grown in all the world. Camels are blended by the world's most expert blenders. Nothing is too good for Camels. In the making of this one brand we concentrate the tobacco knowledge and skill of the largest organization of tobacco experts in the world. No other cigarette made is like Camels. They are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price.
